

Enjoy a relaxing drive fully as you enjoy the gorgeous scenery only Hakone can offer.

1 Mikuni Pass (Mikunitoge)

This location offers an amazing view of Mt. Fuji. You can see right up to the foot of Mt. Fuji, and during the evening, the mountain is silhouetted against a majestic purple sky.

2 Mikoto Spring (Mikoto no Izumi)

Legend has it that Yamato Takeru himself visited this spring, which led to it being referred to as "Mikoto Spring."

3 8 Melody Pave "Fuji no Yama" "Evangelion"

You can enjoy musical tunes along the up lane between Shakushi Pass and Mikuni Pass as well as in front of the Hakone Pass Toll Gate. Drive at a certain speed to enjoy the music.

4 Shakushi Pass (Shakushitoge)

Located in the halfway point of the Ashinoko Skyline, this observation deck is 1,030 meters high. This is the best spot for a panoramic view of Mt. Fuji.

5 6 Rest Haus Fuji View Lake View

Rest House "Fuji View" offers a sweeping view of Suruga Bay. You can take helicopter tours from the nearby helipad.

7 Helicopter Sightseeing Flight

You can board the helicopter from the helipad adjacent to Rest House "Fuji View." Flights are scheduled for consecutive holidays and other special dates. For details, inquire with the staff.

8 Hakone Pass Gate

Entering from Hakone Pass allows you to enjoy a majestic view of Mt. Fuji rising in front of you as you drive.

Ashinoko Skyline

- What is the Ashinoko Skyline? -

The Ashinoko Skyline (Hakone Pass - Kojiri) is a scenic route on the west bank of Ashinoko Lake that runs for 10.7 km total. It can also be used as a shortcut from Gotemba to the Izu area.

Business hours 7:00a.m.~7:00p.m.

※This is subject to change depending on the season/weather. We appreciate your understanding.

Ashinoko Skyline Toll Gate

638 Hakone-machi, Ashigarashimogun, Kanagawa-ken
Phone 0460-83-6361 (Management office)

Scan this code to view the Website

<http://www.ashinoko-skyline.co.jp>

Ashinoko Skyline

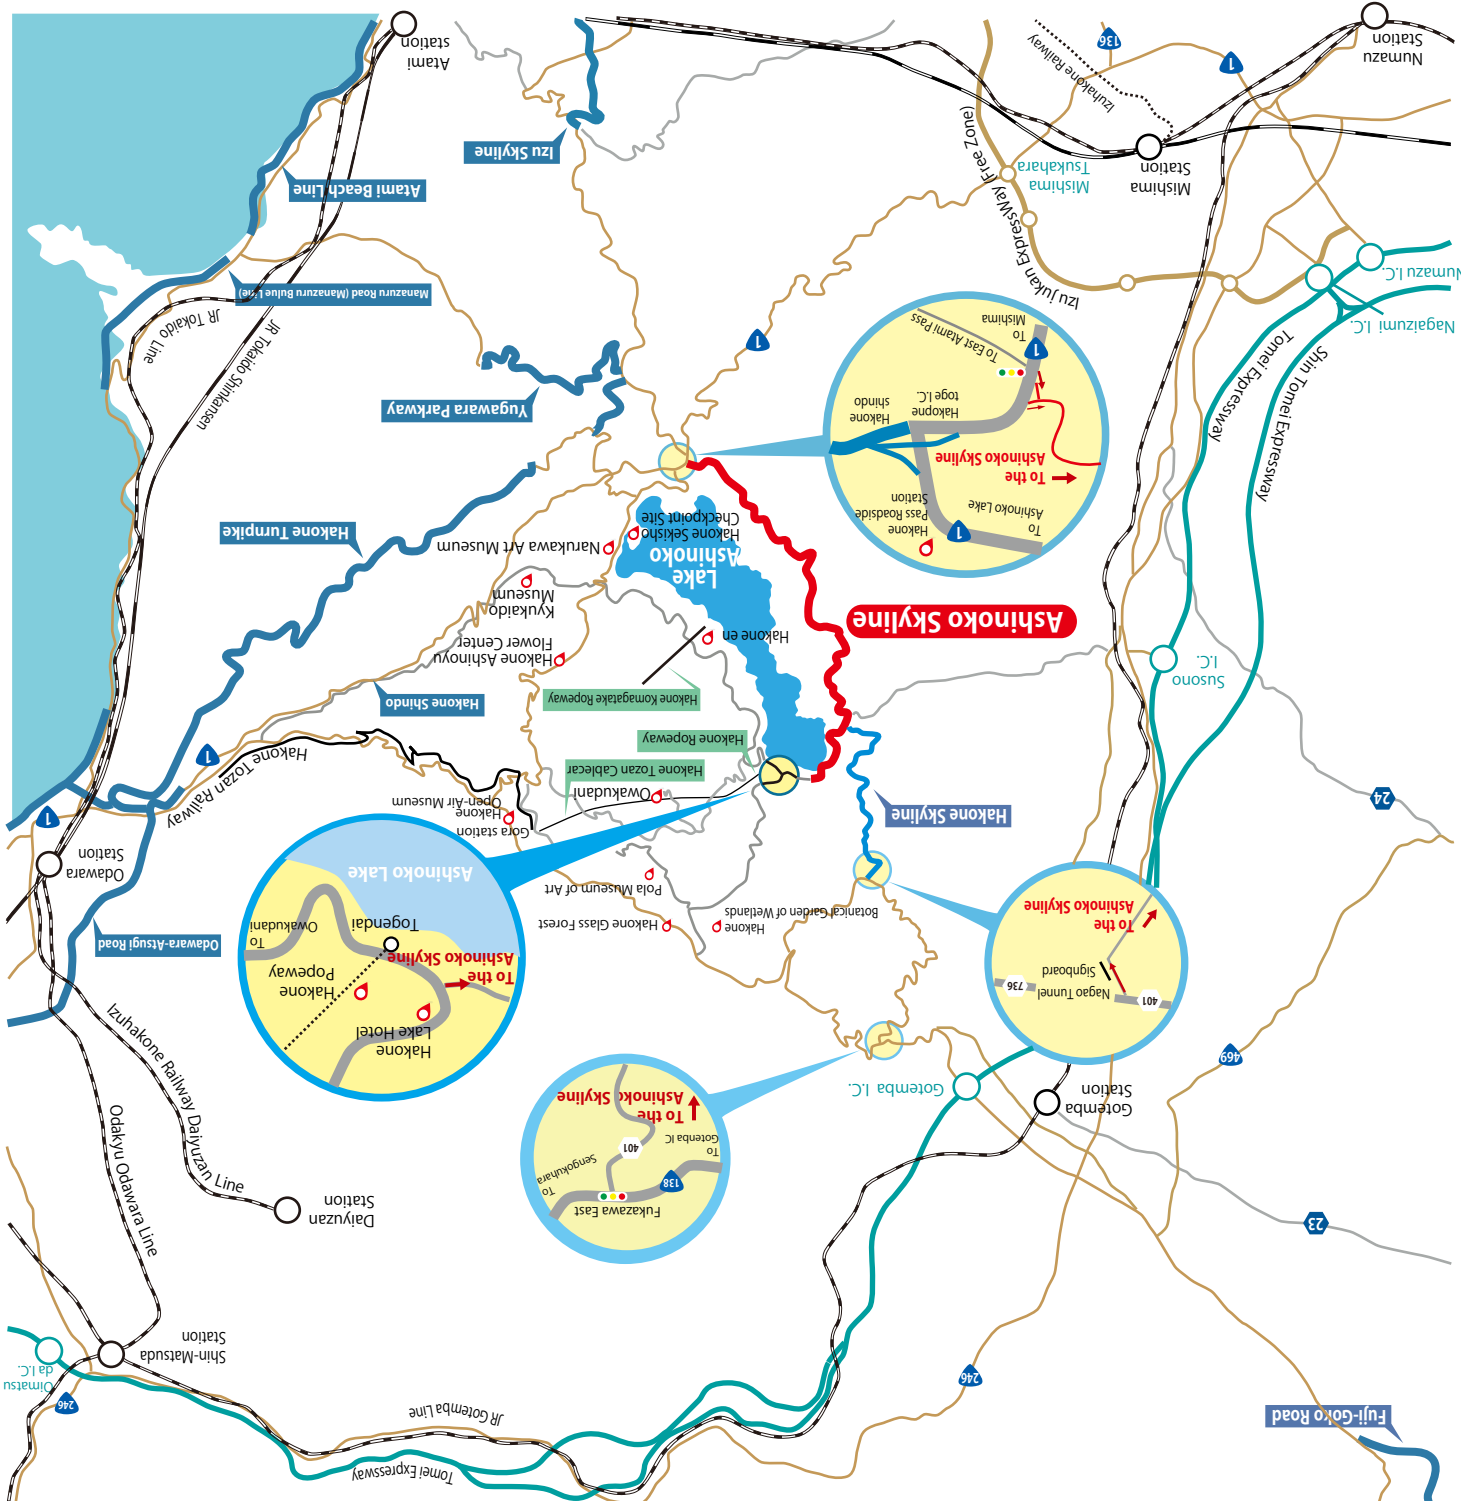

Gaze upon the majestic Mt Fuji and Ashinoko Lake throughout the four seasons from Hakone's "Winding Road."

英語 : English

HAKONE ROUTE MAP
ASHINOKO SKYLINE

Hakone, where the Ashinoko Skyline is located, has always been a popular tourist destination since the Edo period. It is surrounded by numerous tourist facilities, and you'll need more than a day to enjoy all the fun activities, culture, and nature.

Ashinoko Skyline Info MAP
 Mt. Fuji is to the north, and Suruga Bay is to the south. Gaze in wonder as Ashinoko Lake unfurls before your very eyes!